

HOW TO VOTE IN THE 2019 FEDERAL ELECTION

TIME TO BE BOLD

AT THE POLLS

Students and youth are the biggest voting block in this election.
Be bold at the polls.

AM I ELIGIBLE TO VOTE?

To be eligible you must:

| Be a Canadian Citizen.

| Be at least 18 years old on election day, October 21.

| Prove your identity and address.

WHEN AND WHERE CAN I VOTE?

| On Election Day (October 21) at your assigned polling station.

| At any Elections Canada office before Election Day at 6pm.

| By mail if you're studying or working abroad.

| On advance polling days at a community or campus-based polling station. In 2015 there were 39 advance poll locations on post-secondary campuses, this year there will be over 115!

WHAT ID DO I NEED?

You have three options:

Show any one of:

driver's license, or any other card issued by a Canadian government (federal, provincial/territorial, or local) with your photo, name, and current address.

No ID?

Get someone who can prove their identity and address to vouch for you and declare your identity and address in writing.

For a full list of eligible pieces of ID visit elections.ca.

Show any two pieces of ID with your name:

with at least one including your current address (e.g. voter information card, bank statement, student card, ISIC card, utility bill etc.)

Live in residence?

Your housing office should be able to provide a written confirmation of address.

DO I NEED TO REGISTER TO VOTE FIRST?

No but it's easy to do and makes things simpler and faster at the polling station! You'll also get a personalized voter information card in the mail which will tell you when, where, and how to vote.
